Part VI. Section B. Question 11A. The completed Form 990 including each required Schedule is distributed to each board member prior to a regular board meeting. At the board meeting a vote is taken among the voting members to approve the Form 990 and the attached Schedules prior to submission to the IRS. In cases where the timing of the completed report does not fall within a regularly scheduled board meeting, a special board meeting is called to discuss and approve the Form 990 and each attached schedule prior to submission to the IRS.

Part VI. Section B. Questions 12a & 12c. There is a written conflict of interest policy in the bylaws of the organization. Board members are required to abide by the bylaws of the organization, including the conflicts of interest policy. Due to the small size of the board and the limited amount of significant and/or extraordinary transactions, normal exercise of regular financial controls and routine reviews would illuminate any compliance issues with the conflict of interest policy. Any significant transactions for this organization are known by the the Executive Director, the Treasurer, and/or the Board Chairman and most board members individually in adhering to budget restrictions.

Part VI. Section B. Questions 15a & 15b. Extensive research is conducted by the Board of Directors to determine national salary and benefit information for each position that receives compensation. All starting salaries and pay raises are voted on by the Board of Directors. Currently, the only positions that are compensated are the Executive Director and the Client Services Director. All other positions, including the Board of Directors, are strictly volunteer and receive no compensation or any other form of monetary benefit paid by or on behalf of the organization for their time or service to the organization.

Part VI. Section C. Question 19. The organization keeps applicable governing and financial documents, including Form 990, on file at its office and will produce them on request for inspection.
