FORM 990, PART III, LINE 1 - ORGANIZATION MISSION

The Texas Section (TSSRM) is a section of the Society for Range Management (SRM). The SRM is the professional scientific society and conservation organization whose members are concerned with studying, conserving, managing and sustaining the varied resources of the rangelands which comprise nearly half the land in the world. Established in 1948, SRM has over 3,000 members in 48 countries, including many developing nations. The SRM is a professional organization composed of individuals with a common interest in the study, management, and rational use of rangelands and related ecosystems. Membership includes those interested in ranching, wildlife biology, hydrology, range conservation and soil conservation.

The Texas Section Society for Range Management envisions healthy, sustainable rangelands. Healthy rangelands provide dynamic, sustainable habitats for a wide variety of plants and animals. The mission is to provide leadership for the stewardship of rangelands based on sound ecological principals. The objectives are to foster advancement in the science and art of grazing management, to promote progress in the conservation and greatest sustained use of forage and soil resources, provide a medium for the exchange of ideas and facts among section members and with allied technologist, and to encourage professional improvement of its members.
