Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	The Organization's permanently restricted net assets consist of 62 individual endowment accounts. Unless otherwise directed by the donor, gifts received for endowment accounts are invested consistent with The Methodist Hospital's approved investment policy. Unless otherwise directed by the donor, The Foundation has a policy of annually appropriating a certain percentage of each endowment account, which is then available to be spent consistent with donor intent. In order to preserve the real value of a donor's gift and to sustain funding consistent with donor intent, the annual appropriation rate is set to strike a reasonable balance between long-term objectives of preserving and growing each endowment fund for the future and providing stable, year-to-year appropriation amounts.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	The Methodist Hospital Foundation's financial statements were audited by an independent accountant as part of a consolidated financial statement of The Methodist Hospital System (Methodist), the sole Corporate Member. Methodist did not recognize any adjustments related to uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2011.
Part XII, Line 2d - Other Adjustments		Amount represents direct expenses of fundraising activities as reported on 328,031 Form 990, Part VIII, line 8b.
Part XIII, Line 2d - Other Adjustments		Amount represents direct expenses of fundraising activities as reported on 328,031 Form 990, Part VIII, line 8b.

Eligible employees include all staff including hourly staff up through senior vice presidents provided they work at least 20 hours per week and are not otherwise covered by a physician employment agreement. The plan only provides salary and benefits in the event an eligible employee is involuntarily terminated due to the elimination of their position or if their current position is significantly impacted by an organizational restructuring or change in requirement and a comparable position is not available within the organization. The eligible person must also sign a termination agreement in order to receive salary continuation and benefits under the plan to which they would not normally be eligible to receive under a voluntary resignation. Schedule J, Part I, Line 4b Ronald G Girotto $576,200, Edward L Tyrrell $14,159, John E Hagale $107,421, Susan Coulter $18,462 and Cynthia Riley $11,117, were all paid from the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (SERP) described below. The SERP is a non-qualified employer funded plan. Contributions are made annually into a tax deferred account and are considered taxable upon vesting (i.e., completion of three years of vesting service). Once vested, each year's subsequent contribution is taxable within the calendar year in which the deposit was made. Account balances cannot be accessed until retirement or termination (whichever occurs first) and may be subject to non-revocable distribution options selected upon employment. Schedule J, Part I, Line 7 This organization provides a variable compensation opportunity through an annual management incentive plan. A percentage of the potential bonus payout (paid as a percent of base salary) is based on whether the individual attains certain goals for their area of responsibility as determined by their immediate supervisor.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	All Individuals serving in a significant decision making capacity complete a Conflict of Interest (COI) questionnaire annually. A comprehensive evaluation and thorough review of all disclosures is performed by a 6-member COI Committee comprised of executives, management, and staff. The results of the COI disclosures are reported to the parent corporation's Audit & Compliance Committee and Board of Directors, including the actions being taken to protect the integrity of decision-making. In addition, disclosure results are also communicated to management and to affected committee chairs to promote transparency and to ensure that actions are taken and restrictions are imposed where appropriate. Conflicted individuals may not vote or exert self-serving influence on the disclosed matter.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Methodist Hospital (TMH) (sole corporate member) follows IRS regulations as it relates to establishing a rebuttable presumption of reasonableness related to total compensation of the CEO of this organization as well as other key employees and compensated officers of the organization listed below. It has established a process that includes the following elements: A separate committee (the Board Committee) comprised of independent directors meets at least annually to review, deliberate and make recommendations to the Board as it relates to any changes in total compensation including base pay, bonus awards from incentive programs or benefits and perquisites of the CEO. For 2011, the Board Committee reviewed and recommended compensation packages for the following positions: - President/CEO, The Methodist Hospital who also serves as President/CEO for The Methodist Hospital Foundation - EVP, Chief Financial Officer/Chief Administrative Officer, The Methodist Hospital (Assistant Secretary, The Methodist Hospital Foundation). The Board Committee establishes that no member has any conflict of interest with regard to the executive compensation arrangements being approved. The Board Committee reviews and considers information provided by an external consultant engaged to ensure it has direct access to: - Compensation information paid by comparable organizations, for functionally comparable positions - Compensation norms in the organization's immediate locale and from other independent compensation surveys by nationally recognized independent firms that represent the organization's logical peer group - Compensation information that includes information on base salary, incentives, benefits and perquisites for total compensation comparison purposes to ensure reasonable competitive ranking. The Board Committee relies on the comparability data to reach consensus that its recommendations to the Board regarding executive compensation changes are reasonable and in line with the organization's overall total compensation philosophy for executive pay. The deliberations and decisions of the committee are contemporaneously substantiated. The compensation for positions held by the other compensated Officers, Directors and Key Employees listed on Part VII, Section A is determined based on a thorough review of numerous compensation studies conducted by nationally recognized, independent firms that provide market data for total compensation for similar positions. The compensation information considered includes information on base salary, incentives, and benefits for total compensation purposes to ensure reasonable competitive ranking in order to meet recruitment and retention objectives that secure the talent required to contribute to organizational success.
