Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Caring Adoptions has a job cost accounting system that enables it to track Adoptive Family fees and assistance to Birthmothers who are in the process of making adoption plans for their children. Birthmother Assistance is based on an agreement negotiated between Caring Adoptions and the Birthmother detailing expenses required during the pregnancy and up to 6 weeks after placement. This agreement is presented by the Agency to the prospective Adoptive Family who has the choice to accept the agreement negotiate changes through Caring Adoptions or withdraw from the process with a particular Birthmother. The Birthmother assistance must be within the parameters allowed by the Standards of the Texas Department of Family and Regulatory Services. In most instances housing, medical, legal and utility assistance are paid directly to the service provider. Food, clothing, transportation and other allowances are normally paid directly to the Birthmother on a weekly or bi-weekly basis.
