SPECIAL MEETING ON FUNDS TRANSFER

Proposed Date: October 2, 2011

Participants: All BoD members:- Ifthakhar A. Choudhury and Maureen Tavernaro, Paducah, Kentucky
Azfar A. Choudhury, Houston and Areef A. Choudhury, Katy, Texas

Meeting Location: Teleconference

Agenda: Consider & Decide on a Proposal for a New Funds Transfer Process

Background:

During the last several years, funds have been Bank Wired from Porijon, Inc. account with Fidelity to the Managing Director's account with Standard Chartered (UK based bank) in Bangladesh. At the direction and direct management of Porijon, Inc. officers here in the US, funds are primarily disbursed to hundreds of poor students and families throughout Bangladesh. The MD in Bangladesh has been volunteering her service to Porijon, Inc. She has never received any remuneration for her time and efforts. And, she will continue to carry out her duties under the current volunteer role. We have only one part-time paid employee, who authenticates applications, audits and maintains paperwork on the activities in Bangladesh. Until now these arrangements have been working.

In July Standard Chartered bank deducted 10% as tax from each transfer on the premise that an individual (here the MD) was receiving funds as service fees from a foreign institution. After vigorous protest and presentation of Porijon Charter and charitable status recognition documentation, the bank refunded the fee as a onetime courtesy. We were also notified that it would no longer accept funds from Porijon, Inc. account.

Decision:

After exhaustive research we concluded that we currently have primarily 2 options:

1. Attempt to register Porijon, Inc. as a foreign charitable entity with the Bangladesh authority and then if approved open an account under Porijon's name in a Bangladesh bank. In addition to the 'transparent' cost considerations (e.g., travel expenses, once off registration fee of $4000 and annual renewal of $2000), the MD and I feel that Porijon's operations would be subjected to normal corrupt practices. That is, there could be opportunistic approach by local officials with demands (e.g., 'gifts') that we could not and would not consider. Such rejection of local practices would put an undue burden on continuity of the operations, even to the point of needing to shut down.
2. Instead of directly wire transferring funds from the Porijon, Inc. account, I as CFO use my personal account in Fidelity to transfer funds to the MD's personal account. This way, the institutional connections are removed from the funds transfer mechanism, keeping the purpose same. At the same time I transfer from my account, Porijon reimburses me the same amount from its account. Similarly, in Bangladesh, upon receiving the funds the MD transfers exactly the same amount to the Standard Chartered account that is used for Porijon's operations. These transactions maintain the integrity of the transfer. In addition, there would be strict paper trail of the transfers to ensure transparency and to satisfy any query of an auditor.

Approved:

Following the presentation of the options by CFO and further discussions among the BoD, the Option #2 was adopted unanimously. As no funds has been transferred since July and approximately 230 students and families depend on the Porijon's assistance, in light of the fact the adopted method of transfer took effect immediately. Also, in consultation with the Board, the CFO will inform IRS of this change in the funds transfer mechanism.
