What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
The mission of the Mt Sopris Historical Society is to promote history education, specifically the history of the Roaring Fork and Crystal River Valleys, to preserve historical landmarks, and to provide a gathering place for residents, visitors, students and researchers in a setting that is both historical and welcoming

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28 Museum Operations The cabin that houses the Mt Sopris Historical Museum was built by homesteaders and occupied by many families in its first hundred years. Recently, it was moved to its present site (not far from its original location) and opened as a museum of local history. Ute natives, miners, farmers, cowboys, educators, business people, artists—they all played a part in the history of Carbondale, and you can take a look into their lives here. The Museum also houses a research library with photographs and publications for visitors who want to dig deeper into the story of this area or work on genealogical projects.
