Part I. Line 6. There are no gaming activities and fundraising events not listed in Line 1 (golf tournament) did not exceed $15,000.

Line 7c. Represents the difference of shirt cost vs. shirt sales with inventory still left over. This includes the production cost of a pipe and drum patch newly created and donated to the New Mexico firefighter pipe and drum band.

Line 10. This is the total cost of Grants, conferences, and airfare as described in Part III. This also includes a bridge scholarship for the daughter of a local firefighter to attend Central New Mexico Community College 1st semester tuition and books.

Line 16. This represents the amount donated to Roadrunner food bank on behalf of our organization.

Line 20. There are no other changes in net assets or fund balances.

Part II. Line 24. This is a checking account, it is included in the total assets on Line 25 and 27.

Line 26. There no liabilities.

Part III. The New Mexico Firefighters Association benefits Firefighters and their families through, education, training, attending conferences, new legislation, and general support in individual cases of need. The Association maintains separate savings funds within the bank account (included in totals in Part II) for disasters, scholarships, and a registered political action fund. The Association has been successful enacting legislation for a September 11th day of remembrance, presumptive causation, and a State line-of-duty death benefit. This year we were able to pass a memorial bill to visit pension reform and help decide a plan to fully fund State pensions in a proactive manner. We support statewide firefighter programs, especially rural departments, with various assistance and training. We encourage health and safety programs and legislation, and offer legal assistance when needed. The training provided is both in and out of state thru conferences and specific leadership courses. There are currently 1300 professional firefighters in New Mexico with 16 affiliates.

Line 31. This grant was to attend the Affiliate Leadership Training Summit in Orlando, FL. Where our member attended the Leadership training 5 part series, and pension reform session; legal and legislative issues

Part IV. The included Person in this section (although not an officer of the Association), Mr. Dennis Bugg, was utilized as an instructor at our local training conference to teach "how to analyze a municipal financial analysis" and was issued a 1099-misc for associated costs.

Part V. No lobbying was performed, no payments were received from indoor tanning services, no significant changes were made to the organizations governing documents.
