Anasazi Foundation engages in providing behavioral treatment programs, psychological counseling and related services in a unique treatment environment for troubled teenagers throughout the U S who may have experienced treatment failure in other types of programs. The programs offer a unique approach in dealing with troubled children and their parents to break through the conflicts that have caused trouble in their lives. The treatment program combines a wilderness environment and services of professionals in a unique outdoor survival experience. The program uses trained professionals in psychiatry, psychology, family sciences, nursing and social work for the assessment, treatment and education of emotionally disturbed, defiant, and chemical-dependent adolescents. Treatment is supervised by a psychiatrist and a staff nurse. All treatment plans and counselors are supervised using a case manager system.

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

The Anasazi treatment programs provide in-patient and out-patient services for troubled adolescents. The young people who have completed the treatment at Anasazi have showed significant, long-term improvements in the areas of greatest concern by parents, physicians, school and church leaders.
