Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

Palatine Jaycees is a member of the National Jaycees Association whose purposes are o Create activities for the benefit of the community o Have fundraising activities for purposes of contributing the net income charitable organizations or the community
 o Hold community projects for leadership development

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28 The Palatine Jaycees is a part of the national Jaycees organization whose purpose is to give young adults an opportunity to build the bridges of success for themselves. The Jaycees gives them experience in business development, management skills and individual training while helping the community develop programs. Any profit that is made on the projects is turned back to the community in the form of scholarships, donations to worthwhile organizations, and contributions to the development of the community
