The Board shall distribute Foundation Property to accomplish the purposes set forth in Article 3.1 and to avoid subjecting the Foundation to the tax on undistributed income imposed by § 4942 of the Code. The Board shall have the power to amend this instrument at any time if necessary or desirable for the more convenient or efficient administration of the Foundation or to enable Trustee to carry out its purposes more effectively. In creating the Foundation, it is intended that any transferor shall obtain the full benefit of any income tax charitable contribution deduction to which the transferor may be entitled under the Code, and any estate tax charitable contribution deduction to which the transferor's estate may be entitled under the Code. It is further intended that a transfer to the Foundation qualify for the charitable contribution deduction available under Code §§ 170, 2055, and 2522 and the regulations thereunder. Accordingly, the Foundation shall be interpreted, valued, managed and invested consistent with this intent.

ARTICLE 6. MISCELLANEOUS

6.1 Reliance on Agents and Attorneys. Trustee and the Board shall be fully protected in relying upon the advice of legal counsel on questions of law. Trustee and the Board shall not be liable for loss or damage caused by any agent or attorney selected, if reasonable care was exercised in selecting and retaining such agent or attorney.

6.2 Contributions from Others. If any person or persons at any time desire to make gifts, bequests or devises to the Foundation, power and authority is conferred upon the Trustee to receive such gifts, bequests or devises. The Board shall apply the principal and income of such gifts to the purposes of the Foundation. Such gifts, bequests or devises shall not, however, be made upon any terms or conditions that would conflict with the uses or purposes of the Foundation or the provisions of this instrument. Restrictions in such gifts, bequests or devises may be agreed to by the Trustee in conjunction with the Board.

6.3 Creation of Corporation. The Board is authorized and empowered, if it so desires, to form and organize a corporation for the uses and purposes of the Foundation. Such corporation, if organized, shall be named the BLAKEMORE FOUNDATION. Upon the creation and organization of such corporation, the Board, as well as Trustee, is authorized and empowered to convey, transfer and deliver to such corporation all the property and assets to which the Foundation may be or become entitled. #### ARTICLE 7. DURATION OF FOUNDATION

7.1 Duration. The term of the Foundation shall be perpetual.

7.2 Termination by Board. If the Board determines that the purposes of the Foundation can no longer be met, or would be better satisfied by other means, the Foundation can be terminated by a unanimous vote. Upon the winding up and dissolution of the Foundation, after payment or adequate provision for the debts and obligations of the Foundation, the Board shall distribute the Foundation Property to such nonprofit funds, foundations or corporations which then are duly qualified tax exempt charitable organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Code as the Board in its discretion shall select. Determination of Beneficiaries, as well as other steps in the termination, shall comply with § 507 of the Code or the corresponding provisions of any future law so as to avoid any termination taxes.

7.3 Rule Against Perpetuities. If it is determined by a court of law that the Foundation is subject to the rule against perpetuities, the Foundation shall terminate, and the distribution described in Article 7.2 occur, one day earlier than the expiration of the maximum period permitted under applicable law. #### ARTICLE 8. PROHIBITED ACTS AND TRANSACTIONS

Notwithstanding any provision of this instrument, Trustee, Trustee's employees, the Board, the Foundation and Foundation employees are prohibited from

(a) engaging in any act of self-dealing as defined in § 4941(d) of the Code,

(b) retaining any excess business holdings as defined in Code § 4943(c), which would subject the Foundation to tax under Code § 4943,

(c) making any investments which would subject the Foundation to tax under Code § 4944,

(d) making any taxable expenditures as defined in Code § 4945(d),

(e) allowing any part of the Foundation's net earnings to inure or be payable to or for the benefit of any private individual so as to jeopardize the Foundation's exempt status under § 501(c)(3) of the Code,

(f) carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation which would jeopardize the Foundation's exempt status under § 501(c)(3) of the Code, and

(g) participating in, or intervening in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for political office which would jeopardize the Foundation's exempt status under 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE 9. INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Right to Indemnification. The Foundation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, any person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a "Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Member of the Board or a Trustee of the Foundation (an "Indemnified Person"), against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Person in connection with such Proceeding. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, except as otherwise provided in Section 9.4 of this Article 9, the Foundation shall be required to indemnify an Indemnified Person in connection with a Proceeding (or part of such Proceeding) commenced by such Indemnified Person only if the commencement of such Proceeding (or part of such Proceeding) by the Indemnified Person was authorized in advance by the Board of Managers.

9.2 Restrictions on Indemnification. The Foundation may not indemnify any Indemnified Person for: (a) acts or omissions of the Indemnified Person finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (b) conduct of the Indemnified Person finally adjudged to be in violation of such Indemnified Person's fiduciary duties; or (c) any transaction with respect to which it was finally adjudged that such Indemnified Person personally received a benefit in money, property or services to which the Indemnified Person was not legally entitled or if the Foundation is otherwise prohibited by applicable law from paying such indemnification.

9.3 Expenses Payable in Advance. The Foundation shall pay the reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an Indemnified Person in defending any Proceeding in advance of such Proceeding's final disposition (such expenses, "Advanced Expenses"), provided, however, that, to the extent required by law, such payment of Advanced Expenses in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by the Indemnified Person to repay all Advanced Expenses if it should be ultimately determined that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article 9 or otherwise. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing in this Section 9.3, the Foundation shall not be required to pay any Advanced Expenses to a person against whom the Foundation directly brings a claim alleging that the Foundation is not required to indemnify such person under Section 9.2 of this Article 9.

9.4 Written Statement Required and Right of Indemnified Person to Bring Suit. An Indemnified Person seeking indemnification pursuant to Section 9.1 or Advanced Expenses pursuant to Section 9.3 must first submit to the Board of Managers a sworn statement requesting indemnification or Advanced Expenses, as the case may be, and reasonable evidence of all such amounts requested by such Indemnified Person (such statement, a "Claim"). If (a) a Claim pursuant to Section 9.1 above is not paid in full by the Foundation within 60 days after such Claim has been received by the Foundation, or (b) a Claim pursuant to Section 9.3 above is not paid in full by the Foundation within 30 days after such Claim has been received by the Foundation, then the Indemnified Person may at any time after the expiration of the applicable period bring suit against the Foundation to recover the unpaid amount of such Claim. If an Indemnified Person succeeds in whole or in part in any such suit or in a suit brought by the Foundation to recover Advanced Expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, then such Indemnified Person is also entitled to receive reimbursement from the Foundation for the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. The Indemnified Person shall be presumed to be entitled to indemnification under this Article 9 upon submission of a Claim (and, in an action brought to enforce a Claim for Advanced Expenses, where the required undertaking has been delivered to the Foundation), and, thereafter, the Foundation shall have the burden of proof to overcome the presumption that the Indemnified Person is so entitled.

9.5 Nonexclusivity of Rights. The right to indemnification and Advanced Expenses conferred by this Article 9 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or acquire after the effective date of this Charter under (a) any statute, (b) common law, (c) provision of this Charter, (d) by general or specific action of the Board of Managers, (e) by contract or (f) otherwise.

9.6 Insurance, Contracts and Funding. The Foundation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of the Foundation or Another Enterprise against any expense, liability or loss. The Foundation may enter into contracts with any Board Member, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of the Foundation in furtherance of the provisions of this Article 9 and may create a trust fund, grant a security interest or use other means (including, without limitation, a letter of credit) to ensure the payment of such amounts as may be necessary to effect indemnification and Advanced Expenses as provided in this Article 9.

9.7 Indemnification of Employees and Agents of the Foundation. The Foundation may, by action of the Board of Managers, grant rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses to employees and agents or any class or group of employees and agents of the Foundation (a) with the same scope and effect as the provisions of this Article 9 with respect to the indemnification and Advanced Expenses of Board Members and officers of the Foundation or (b) as are otherwise consistent with law

- Be pursuing an academic, professional or business career that involves the regular use of a modern East or Southeast Asian language

- Be at or near an advanced level in the language as defined below in "Definition of Advanced Level" (minimum requirement is fluency equivalent to 3 years of college-level study of the language)

- Applications for languages which are not commonly taught at U.S. universities will be considered on an individual basis.

If an applicant does not have the required minimum years of academic study of the language, the applicant may provide proof of equivalent competency (see language evaluation form at end of this document that can be used to satisfy this requirement).

Eligible Languages

Chinese	Japanese	Korean	Thai
Vietnamese	Indonesian	Khmer	Burmese

Consideration will be given to other East or Southeast Asian languages on an individual basis. Grants will not be made for the study of Asian languages not in current use.

Eligible Language Programs

The Blakemore Foundation awards grants for study only at specific language programs as noted below.

Applicants for Blakemore language grants must apply both to the language program involved and to the Blakemore Foundation. Each language program has its own separate application due dates and forms, which may be found on its website. Application materials for the Blakemore Foundation's grants are found on our website at www.blakemorefoundation.org.

For Japanese, we fund study at the Inter-University Center for Japanese Language Studies in Yokohama, Japan (<http://www.westanford.edu/dept/IUC/>). We do not fund Japanese language study at any other institution.

For Chinese, we fund study at the Inter-University Program for Chinese Language Studies, located on the Tsinghua University campus in Beijing, China (<http://ieas.berkeley.edu/iup/>) and at the International Chinese Language Program at National Taiwan University in Taipei, Taiwan (<http://iclp.ntu.edu.tw/>). We do not fund Chinese language study at any other institution.

For Korean, we recommend study at Seoul National University (<http://lel.snu.ac.kr/site/en/leec/main/main.jsp>), Yonsei University (<http://www.wyyskh.com/index.asp>) or Sogang University (<http://klec.sogang.ac.kr/>). We will consider study at other Korean language programs on a case-by-case basis during the application review process.

Approval of language programs for study of languages of SE Asia will be considered on an individual basis during the application review process.

Application and Acceptance by Language Program

It is the applicant's individual responsibility to apply to the language program which he or she lists on the Blakemore Freeman Fellowship application. The Foundation does not apply for the applicant. Applicants may list only one language program on the application.

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships are awarded contingent upon the applicant's unconditional acceptance by the language program for which the fellowship is awarded. Example: an applicant applying to the IUP-Tsinghua program must successfully pass the IUP's oral exam and not be required by the IUP to complete a summer program as a prerequisite to academic year admission.

No grants are available for study in the United States.

Private Tutorial Programs

If there is no approved advanced-level language program available in a country, an applicant may propose a program combining study in an ordinary language program supplemented by private tutorials. If no language program exists at all in the country, an applicant may propose a program of full-time tutorials.

Length of Program

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships are made for one year of full-time language study. This may include study in the summer immediately preceding or following an academic year program. The Foundation encourages applicants who are applying for an academic year program to include a summer term in their application. The inclusion of a summer term does not affect the selection process.

Academic Year	Academic Year plus Summer Program	Summer Study Alone	Program Less than One Academic Year
Yes	Yes	No	No

Extensions of Grants

Under normal economic conditions, the Foundation is open to reasonable requests for a grant extension. A request can be made at any time during the course of a grant, explaining the reasons for the extension and accompanied by evidence of good standing in the applicant's current language program. The request may be submitted by email and should be directed to Clifft Way, Trustee.

Please note that we cannot guarantee that funding for grant extensions will be available for the 2012-2013 year

Applicants who wish to attend a summer term preceding or following their academic year should include the summer term in their application in order to guarantee funding.

Dates of Study and Deferral Policy

Study must start between June of the year of award and May of the following year. No deferrals of grants will be permitted.

Residency Requirement

Blakemore Freeman Fellows are expected to remain in the study country during the entire period of their grant, except in the event of an emergency. Therefore, a Blakemore Freeman Fellow should not plan to return to the United States for Christmas or other holiday periods.

We encourage Blakemore Freeman Fellows to use holidays and school breaks for modest travel within their study country and to use these opportunities to expand their language usage outside the classroom.

Conflicting Activities

Blakemore Freeman Fellows must devote full-time to language study and not engage in any conflicting activities during the period covered by their grant.

Part-time employment, teaching English, extensive research on a dissertation or involvement in other projects which could hamper full-time study are not permitted.

Recreational, educational or cultural activities which do not interfere with full-time study are encouraged, particularly during school and holiday breaks.

U.S. Income Tax Liability

All grant funds from the Blakemore Foundation are taxable for U.S. income tax purposes unless the recipient qualifies for some type of exclusion or deduction.

The treatment of Blakemore language grants for tax purposes is the recipient's individual responsibility. No income tax is withheld from the stipend and grant recipients are responsible for making any required estimated tax payments. Please see IRS Publication 970 Tax Benefits for Education and Form 1040-ES for more information. Because of the variety of individual situations, we recommend applicants discuss their own individual case with a qualified tax advisor.

Amount of Grant

Blakemore Freeman Fellowships are intended to cover basic expenses at a graduate student level necessary to pursue a year of full-time language study in Asia, including tuition or tutoring fees plus a stipend for travel, living and study expenses

The stipend for Blakemore Freeman Fellowships is paid periodically over the course of the grant and may be used for the following types of expenses:

- Round-trip airfare, economy class
- Books and study materials related to language program
- Housing/utilities
- Food and ordinary daily living expenses
- Local commuting
- Travel within country during holidays and school breaks
- Recreational, educational or cultural activities
- Health insurance/medical evacuation insurance
- Immunizations appropriate for country

- Visa application fees
- Income taxes due on taxable portion of grant
- Other fees or expenses required by language program or approved by the Trustee

It is up to each Blakemore Freeman Fellow to budget the stipend funds to cover necessary costs. Thus it is to his or her advantage to obtain as low an airfare as possible in order to have more funds for travel, books, etc. Stipend funds may not be used to cover expenses of an accompanying dependent.

Unused stipend funds must be returned to the Foundation at the end of the grant

Grant Disbursement

Tuition for the language program is covered in full by the grant and is paid directly to the language program by the Blakemore Foundation. Tutoring fees, if applicable, are reimbursed to the Blakemore Freeman Fellow based on monthly expense reports and receipts.

The stipend for travel, living and study expenses is disbursed to the Blakemore Freeman Fellow at intervals over the course of the grant. Adjustments to stipend may be considered if exchange rates or living expenses alter significantly during the period covered by the grant.

Required Reports

Blakemore Freeman Fellows must submit a monthly financial report of expenditures of the stipend along with a letter reporting on their activities during the preceding month. They must also submit two longer progress reports to the Foundation during their fellowship, the first report being due at mid-year, and a second report just prior to the end of their grant. A statement regarding the expenditure of the stipend on forms provided by the Foundation must be provided at the end of a Blakemore Freeman Fellowship. The Foundation must be provided with an official transcript from the language program at which the student is enrolled for each academic period covered by a Blakemore Freeman Fellowship. The transcript should list courses taken and grades received or progress made.
