Part V Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Part I, Line 2 Recipients are retirees who have no income other than their small government pension. The grant amount is principally to pay for medications, in some cases for rent assistance, and for other living expenses. The amount granted to each recipient is determined through annual visits and ongoing correspondence, including some telephone conversations, to monitor each person's situation and needs.

Part I, Line 3 (f) and Part III The accounting method is cash. Accordingly, grants are recorded only if recipients pick up their money orders at the bank in Riga, where the Taxpayer maintains a checking account. The sole purpose of this bank account is to receive funds and make distributions to grantees. The bank charges a small service charge against the Taxpayer's account for each disbursement. Grant disbursements are typically made one to four times per year to each recipient.
