| DIRECT SUPPORT FOR EDUCATION AND HOMELESS PROGRAMS Through 100 Black Men, the Bar Assn of San Francisco's Minority Law Student Fund, and San Francisco State University we provided scholarships to disadvantaged students going to college. Through our support of Bethel Baptist and Beebe Memorial Churches, we supported youth and homeless programs. Support for Police & Firefighters, Futures Without Violence and Vocational Training contribute to safe communities and strengthen families. Pediatric Diabetes was also a focus of this year's direct grants.                                                  |                                                  |                                                    |               |

| A special donation was made this year to support the music program at PS #046 Arthur Tappan, an inner-city New York public school. The school's mission is aligned with that of this foundation " dedicated to the premise that every child will succeed. We will immerse the children in a child-centered environment that nurtures, supports, and encourages the development of intelligent and well-rounded individuals. We will create a safe learning environment where the rights of each individual are protected and respected.
