In 2011 the program provided housing and services to 22 parents and 42 children. The families at Vine Maple Place arrive without the resources and skills required to achieve stability and self-sufficiency in their lives. We define our success by how well our families achieve self-sufficiency and their ability to obtain and move into stable permanent housing. Our services to homeless families include: 1. Transitional housing: 2-bedroom apartments where families live for up to 24 months. 2. Case Management: assisting each family with a Family Transition Plan that focuses on achieving permanent housing along with stable employment in living-wage jobs. 3. Life-Skills Training: to build self-sufficiency, including Financial Literacy, Employment and Education counseling, goal-setting, job readiness, parenting skills, time management, building healthy relationships in family and community. 4. Family Support Teams: car mechanics, childcare helpers, job-skills trainers, tutors, hair stylists, computer trainers, and more. Mentoring: trained mentors who encourage and work with the families. 5. Child Advocacy: Each child is assessed for age/grade appropriate development in behavior and academics. Deficiencies are addressed by providing services such as tutoring, counseling, therapeutic intervention and life skills training. Our goal is to provide a safe, nurturing environment where children can heal, grow and thrive. In 2011 we received calls representing 3,340 homeless parents and children seeking help and housing.

The family services staff at Vine Maple Place is the starting place for all grant requests. Residents of the program can put in a request with the program staff for specific needs. Upon approval of a request, the family services staff completes a form which is given to accounting for payment or fulfillment for the resident. Most expenditures are either paid directly to the person providing the service (i.e. school resident is attending, automotive repair site, etc.) or are given to the resident directly in the form of gift cards to be used to meet the need.

Some gift cards are used to recognize volunteers. Additionally, residents have a program where set goals are measured and gift cards can be earned by meeting those goals.
