Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
Thanks to the efforts of Father Michael J McGivney, assistant pastor of St Mary's Church in New Haven and some of his parishioners, the Connecticut state legislature on March 29, 1882, officially chartered the Knights of Columbus as a fraternal benefit society The Order is still true to its founding principles of charity, unity and fraternity The Knights of Columbus was formed to render financial aid to members and their families Mutual aid and assistance are offered to sick, disabled and needy members and their families Social and intellectual fellowship is promoted among members and their families through educational, charitable, religious, social welfare, war relief and public relief works The KofC have become the world's foremost Catholic fraternal benefit society The Order has helped families obtain economic security and stability

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28

Youth Development Programs, General/Other Family and Youth Activities - Catholic values are rooted in the strong bonds of family life The Knights of Columbus supports these values through family and youth activities Substance Abuse - Knights of Columbus members regularly participate in and sponsor programs aimed at combating substance abuse Councils work with police, youth groups and other organizations to conduct educational programs on the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse The Knights sponsor poster contests for youth on substance abuse The Order's youth group, the Columbian Squires, participate in programs that publicize the dangers of drunk driving The council provided 2,800 volunteer hours supporting youth projects (0 0) (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here
