Form 990-EZ, Part III - Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose

The AIR Program believes in the promotion and success of American Indians within Education. Via a mentoring and tutoring component, the AIR Program offers American Indians the opportunity to experience the higher educational arena via educational workshops, library research projects, interaction with current college students, networking among college professors and community leaders, in addition to motivation and support to succeed in their post-secondary school pursuits.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Semester based/weekly mentoring and tutoring for middle and high school students from the urban and Reservation Indian community in San Diego County. Specifically, educational workshops and field trips, research projects, educational counseling, cultural based workshops.

AIR directly served approximately 100 persons over the 2011 year. This includes the students and mentors and volunteers that participated in AIR services. AIR indirectly benefits the local American Indian community by contributing to the betterment of your Native community youth via educational motivation and cultural preservation.
