What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? The Society's mission is to collect and disseminate State and local historical knowledge. A key component of this is the operation of the Wickersham House Museum. As a complement, the Society hosts eight free public lectures each year, and sponsors publication of historical research findings and other materials. The Society obtains Federal, State, and Local grant monies in support of historic preservation and cultural resource management, directly administering some grants and assisting in the administration of others.	Expenses (Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts, optional for others.)
Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
