Fire/EMS Training and Safety Seminars – Expenses $8,230

The Petersburg VFD (association) sends members to annual fire and EMS training conferences around the state to train to keep current with the latest certifications on fire and EMS. The association sends six to eight members to the ASFA/AFCA Fire training conference for five days of training each year. The association also sends four to eight members to the Southeast Region Emergency Medical Services (SEREMS) for two to four days of training each year. The association pays for per diem and/or registration and costs of travel for each of these training events and these activities benefit the entire community. There is other training that is considered by the association including CPR, Avalanche, and other fire/EMS related training.

Safety related events and programs – Expenses $2,403

Learn Not To Burn Program held during Fire Prevention Week. Volunteer firefighters show videos, provide demonstrations, and distribute materials to ten elementary school classes over the course of three days. There are approximately 15 to 25 volunteer hours, including prep time, depending on number of volunteers.

Early Childhood Education Fair is held bi-annually. Volunteer members take a fire engine and ambulance to the fair for children to be able to chance to get in the vehicles and learn how and why things work during an emergency. Handouts and trinkets are distributed. There are approximately 6 volunteer hours, including prep time, depending on number of volunteers.

The Scared Straight program will be reinstated. The association assisted in a program to show high school students what can happen while driving under the influence. Demonstrations are presented by those that have been affected by drunk drivers and then fire/ems volunteers reenact a mock incident with the students playing the roles as drivers under the influence. A mock death scenario is also acted out. There are approximately 12 volunteer hours, including prep time, depending on the number of volunteers.

Community events – Expenses $2,120

Also, children are given an opportunity to learn and try skills used in firefighting (obstacle course, thermal imager use, emergency medical services (CPR/First Aid), and search and rescue (rope skills). Approximately 30 volunteer hours depending on preparation time and number of volunteers.

Booth held on mainstreet during Mayfest and 4th of July to provide information to families regarding preparedness and emergencies. Booth held during Health Fair every two years. Volunteer members man the booths. Approximately 10 to 32 volunteer hours per booth depending on number of volunteers and prep time.
