Part II, Line 9 - Accounting for Conservation Easements

Land held for Conservation: Purchased land is recorded at cost. Donated land is recorded as a contribution at its estimated fair market value at the date of gift. Land conservation easements have no readily discernible value and therefore, are not recorded. While professional appraisals are used to determine a fair market value for conservation easements held by the Trust, that value is not convertible by the Trust and holding the easement increases the Trust's stewardship obligations. Consequently, easements are recorded at a nominal $1 value for tracking purposes only. The Board may from time to time evaluate the carrying value of land held for conservation and if the value of the property appears impaired based upon restrictions imposed by the Board or a third-party funding source, may adjust the value of the land based on the restrictions imposed.
