CRA staff lobbied Oregon legislators to fund and implement three research marine reserves in Oregon's Territorial Sea. This involved directly meeting with state legislators to explain the scientific benefits of small marine reserves. On two occasions, the CRA through email messages to our supporters, urged CRA supporters to voice their support for marine reserve funding and implementation by the Oregon legislature.

Part III. Statement of Program Service Accomplishment. Answer to what the organization's primary exempt purpose is: The purpose of the Coast Range Association is to protect the coast range region's forest and related ecosystems from unwise use while fostering a new vision of stewardship, diversity and long term sustainability. The purposes of the corporation are accomplished through public education, research, and the advocacy of environmentally sound public policy toward the goal of building just and sustainable human communities that provide for people and the natural world. The corporation's purpose and mission is accomplished through three specific programs:

1. Conservation advocacy for terrestrial, freshwater, and marine biodiversity conservation, 2. Public lands management for native forest and old growth forest conservation, 3. Public interest forest management for watershed restoration and economic benefits - our community forestry education and training initiative.

Specific description of achievements in carrying out the corporation's purpose for 990EZ, Part III 28, 29, 30 are below:

Line 28. Conservation advocacy for terrestrial, freshwater, and marine biodiversity conservation. We continued the development of the land-sea conservation framework. CRA staff worked to further educate the public on the importance of healthy watersheds and provided support to watershed councils. CRA staff person, Chuck Willer, participated in a six month Conservation Action Plan process for the Nehalem watershed which may provide multiple follow up opportunities in 2012. We continued work to achieve near shore marine reserves. This involved public education and lobbying in support of State of Oregon legislation to implement and fund the marine reserves.

Line 29. Public lands management for native forest and old growth conservation: We continue educating the public about the need to conserve the region's last remaining old growth and native forests on federal and state forest lands. We continued the maintenance of the CRA's Google Earth web site locating federal and state older forest stands. Key CRA forest reports and analyses are archived on the CRA' main website at www.coastrange.org

Line 30. Public interest forest management for watershed restoration and economic benefits was a priority program in 2011. CRA staff provided half time contract support to the Oregon Coast Community Forest Association (OCCFA). The OCCFA is a 501c3 tax exempt organization seeking to own and manage forest lands for a public benefit and provide value added wood products for local economic development. During the year, CRA staff supported the completion of the Lincoln County Feasibility Study - a project assessing issues regarding the formation of a community forest in Lincoln County. To that end, CRA staff also served on the board of directors of the Yachats-based 501c3 conservancy organization View the Future as well as the board of directors of the OCCFA
