Part X, Line 2 - On January 1, 2009, the College adopted accounting guidelines related to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which required the recognition of uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return when it is "more likely than not" to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The adoption of this new accounting guidance did not have an impact on the accompanying financial statements, as all tax positions taken on prior year income tax returns were deemed highly certain. The College did not have a liability for unrecognized tax benefits upon adoption of this guidance as of December 31, 2011.

The Organization's policy is to recognize interest and penalties accrued on any unrecognized tax benefits. As of December 31, 2011, the Organization did not have any unrecognized tax benefits, therefore, the Organization did not have any interest or penalties expense related to unrecognized tax benefits for the year ended December 31, 2011. The Organization files federal income tax returns and is no longer subject to federal income tax examinations for years before 2007.

The College qualifies as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and generally is not subject to federal taxes on income.

Scholarship assistance is received from the United States Department of Justice and the United States Department of Transportation

The following nondiscriminatory policy is included in its catalogs, flyers, and registration and course materials "The National Judicial College will not deny admission to any program because of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, age, disability or religion "

The College's bylaws, other governing instruments and contemporaneous Board resolutions do not include such a statement. It is the opinion of College management that while a previous Board resolution covering nondiscrimination did at one time exist, it cannot be located in the applicable files, therefore, the Board is being requested to pass a new nondiscriminatory resolution

As always, the College strives to include its nondiscriminatory policy message in all of its programs and fundraising materials
