Part IIIStatement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The California Council for the Humanities connects Californians to ideas and one another in order to understand our shared heritage and diverse cultures, inspire civic participation and shape our future

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes

No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes

No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 656,891 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

California Documentary Project -- Is a grants program that supports documentary film, video, radio and new media projects that explore and interpret subjects relevant to California's past, present or future. Grants are available to fund production, as well as research and development.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 633,319 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

California Story Fund (now called Community Stories)b). The California Story Fund is a small grants program that funds unique story projects in communities throughout the state. Projects provide opportunities for individual Californians to contribute their stories to the evolving story of our state. Grant awards are up to $10,000.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 356,068 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

Searching for Democracy California Reads. Searching for Democracy is a thematic program initiative designed to animate a public conversation on the meaning of democracy today, through a series of local, regional, and statewide humanities-inspired activities. The goal of these efforts is to enhance understanding of the civic realm and improve our ability to exercise "the ultimate powers of the society"--those of self-government. California Reads is a new program developed in partnership with the California Center for the Book and the California State Library. It invites Californians from all walks of life throughout the state to participate in reading and discussion programs and related activities hosted by libraries, schools, colleges, bookstores, and other community institutions. Many programs will involve the use of five through-provoking books, which were chosen from a pool of over 300 titles nominated by members of the public. The choices were based upon the final recommendations of an advisory group of librarians, authors, scholars.
