employees prior to their selection/hire for possible conflicts of interest. If an actual or perceived conflict exists in the opinion of the Foundation's management, then the candidate will not be selected for the position or will be asked to terminate the conflicted relationship.

Full-time employees are required to inform management if they intend to accept a second job or self-employment so that potential conflicts with the work for the Foundation can be identified. If a conflict of interest is discovered by management due to an employee's second job or self-employment, the Foundation can require resolution of the matter within seven days or the employee can be terminated.

All contracts are reviewed by management to ensure no conflicts of interest exist between trustees, employees and third-party vendors. If lawsuits are undertaken for third parties, the Foundation's general counsel checks for any prior involvement with interested parties to the litigation that might involve a conflict of interest. If a conflict exists in a contract or a lawsuit, the Foundation will not enter into the contract or represent the third party.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: The CEO of the Foundation sets the compensation level for all new hires, and determines increases for current employees. The Board of Trustees sets the compensation level for the CEO. The annual compensation budget is reviewed by the Board of Trustees and compared to the financial health of the Foundation.
