Part X- FIN 48 Footnote

The Foundation evaluates its uncertain tax positions and will recognize a loss contingency when it is probable that a liability has been incurred as of the date of the financial statements and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. The amount recognized is subject to estimate and management judgment with respect to the likely outcome of each uncertain tax position. The amount that is ultimately sustained for an individual uncertain tax position or for all uncertain tax positions in the aggregate could differ from the amount recognized. As of December

Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring Use of Grants Funds in U.S. (continued)

If the grantee is an international organization the terrorist website is checked to make sure the organization is not listed.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/U.S._State_Department_list_of_Foreign_Terrorist_Organizations

4.A site visit is later conducted to observe program and get to know the organization's services.

5.The Milagro Foundation Board members receive applications and final reports 30 days or more prior to board meeting.

6.Board meets about 3 times per year to review grantees and discuss other business.

If the grant application is approved by board, grant amount is confirmed (using minutes taken by foundation secretary). Board Minutes are kept in binder and on executive director and program associate computer files.

7.A legal agreement letter between the grantee and the Milagro Foundation is generated by the program associate. The letter is sent to grantee for the review and signature of the executive director or program director.

8.The letter is signed and returned to Milagro Foundation. It is filed in grantee file. A check is written with the agreed grant amount. It is recorded in QuickBooks. Executive director signs check. A stub is attached to an office copy of the grant agreement letter. The check (or wire transfer) is then sent to grantee. All paperwork is kept together in file and/or on computer.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Between October 1998 and March 2012, the Milagro Foundation has supported children and youth in 36 states and 35 countries by granting $5,264,213 to 351 agencies working with vulnerable children and youth in the areas of education, health and the arts.

Milagro's education focus support agencies and organizations that are working to close the achievement gap and provide college access and aspirations among young people. Milagro evaluates long term projects that will lead to systemic changes, especially in impoverished communities. Through education we hope to help change or eliminate the cycle of poverty in Bay Area communities.

In the areas of health, the foundation examines agencies that provide mental health, physical health, family support and addiction support to children around the San Francisco Bay area as well as continuing our focus and funding of international global health initiatives.
