Statement of Primary Purpose

The Orrick, Herrington, & Sutcliffe Foundation was formed to administer a broad range of charitable and educational programs for individuals, non-profit organizations, governmental entities and/or the general public. It is anticipated that these programs will be conducted primarily within the communities where Orrick, Herrington, & Sutcliffe LLP maintains offices. In addition to furthering these charitable purposes, the Foundation was established for the purpose of consolidating the charitable giving of Orrick's partners and employees. The consolidation of these charitable giving activities into a single foundation is intended both to encourage the making of further charitable gifts by these individuals and to allow the recipients of such grants to recognize the aggregate gifts received from all partners and employees at Orrick.
