(Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts, optional for others)

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
Freedom Archives is dedicated to organizing and preserving a growing collection of archival media. This includes historical audio and video chronicling progressive social movements, poetry, and music for over 30 years. The goal is to preserve, re-master, and catalog all of these materials as a community-based resource. The second main purpose and function of the freedom archives is to provide documentary and primary materials for historians, educators, teachers, media producers, and other scholars and/or documentarians.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Organizing and preserving the growing collection of archival media found in the freedom archives, providing documentary and primary materials for historians, educators, teachers, media producers, and other scholars and/or documentarians, and training students, diverse community youth, and other interns in media production, historical research, and related skills (Grants $ 89,215) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here <input type="checkbox"/>	28a
