Baptist Gardens was organized in 1970 as a California Non-Profit, with the purpose of providing Affordable Housing to seniors through establishing a multi-unit housing property. Through our growth we have expanded into additional facets of Affordable Housing. Whether it be acquiring new properties, the abilities of providing funding to make new loans available for new construction, bridge loans, and a variety of other loans in relation to Affordable Housing in conjunction with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. Baptist Gardens will be pleased to consider proposals presented to them and may evaluate what part of role that they may come along side your enterprise as to provide financial lending in relation to Affordable Hosing within Southern California.

For the period just ended, we have provided financing to LA City Lights in the amount of $2,000,000, which is planning to develop 144 units.
