	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The 990 is prepared by an independent public accounting firm and reviewed by the organization's executive management team. The 990 is then reviewed and approved by the audit committee. After this approval, the 990 is provided to the full Board prior to filing it with the Internal Revenue Service. These various levels of review ensure the information filed is complete, accurate, and in compliance with regulations.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each director, officer, executive and key employee is required to review a copy of the conflict of interest policy annually and to acknowledge in writing that he or she has done so. Each person annually completes a disclosure form identifying any relationships, positions or circumstances in which he or she believes could contribute to a conflict. Following full disclosure of a possible conflict of interest, the Board of Directors shall determine whether a conflict of interest exists, and, if so, the Board shall vote to authorize or reject the transaction or take any other action deemed necessary to address the conflict and protect the organization's best interests. This policy is reviewed annually by each member of the Board of Directors. Any changes to the policy are communicated immediately to all persons subject to the policy.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Compensation for executives, top management and key employees is independently reviewed and based on analysis of comparable data obtained from industry resources, publicly disclosed 990s, peer organizations. Review and approvals are documented accordingly, based on the position being evaluated, at either at Board level, through delegated committees, or with senior executives.
