Policy program - is critical to drive agricultural technology adoption, market development and income growth for farmers.

AGRA and its partners are working together with governments to assess existing policies, identify elements that needs to be changed, and develop options for national policy markets to consider.

The African Enterprise Challenge Fund (AECF) is a six year initiative of donors to stimulate and encourage private sectors intervention in agri-business, rural agri-finance in rural areas of Sub Sahara Africa. The objective is to lift mainly rural population out of poverty through business and commercial activity.

FOSCA - Farmers' Organizations Support Centre in Africa

Form 990, pg 5, Part V, Line 1c (Backup withholding rules)

Because AGRA is located in Africa and conducts most of its activity there, most payments to contractors were not reportable payments subject to backup withholding. In some cases, AGRA staff in Africa made payments to U.S Vendors, and we have not been able to confirm that a taxpayer identification number obtained in all such cases. The organization is putting in place procedures that will ensure full compliance with backup withholding rules going forward.
