| Sch J, Part I, Line 1a | Part I, Line 1a Relevant information in regards to selections on 1a | The members of the Board of Directors serve without compensation but are reimbursed for travel to board of director meetings which are held three times a year in person plus once a year by teleconference. Travel to board meetings may be first class or coach at the election of the board member. Spouses of board members are also invited to attend one or two board meetings each year to provide input and insight on the Center's programs and operations. The president of the Center is required to live in housing on the Center's property. This arrangement is required as a condition of employment and is provided for the convenience of the employer. The value of this housing is $35,400 and is included on Schedule J, Part II, Column D. The Center owns several homes in the surrounding community to ensure that housing is available for key employees. These homes are rented to employees for fair market rent. Rents are set based on rental rates of comparable housing in the surrounding community. The amount of rent for these homes in 2011 was $104,458. |

| Form 990,Part VI, Line15b | Form 990, Part VI, Line15b CompensationReview and ApprovalProcess for Officers andKey Employees | The Centers benefit/compensation department uses data from Watson Wyatt Services and the Hawaii Employers Council to formulate salary ranges for executives. The goal is to remain competitive in Hawaii and to be able to recruit potential employees from the Mainland. The information is compiled into a report and is provided to the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. The Board uses this information to determine the CEOs salary and also gives approval for salaries to other Officers of the Center.                                                                                                                              |
