After-School Programs at John Muir High School

LaWayne Williams, Program Director, 626 / 396- 5610 LaWayne@Flintridge.org

A chance for teens to express, discover, learn, succeed and lead

Young People Need a Strong Educational Foundation to Become Healthy, Resilient Adults

Located in NW Pasadena, Muir is the lowest performing of four public high schools in the Pasadena Unified School District.

Muir's enrollment is slightly less than 1,000 with a student population that is 70% Latino and 27% African American. More than three-fourths qualify for the federal free and reduced lunch program, an indicator of family poverty.

These students face numerous socio-economic challenges that present obstacles to school achievement.

20+ Educational and Enrichment Programs and a Safe Place to Go When School is Out Programs are offered before, during and after-school hours, Monday through Thursday, and on weekends during the school year.

Our wide range of activities includes college preparation, leadership development, art, dance, music, theatre, sports, yoga, cooking, life skills, mentoring, homework assistance and credit recovery classes. We utilize a project-based approach that connects to in-school learning.

These programs broaden skills and knowledge, foster healthy personal development and provide critically needed remedial academic support, enabling students to graduate on time.

A family literacy component for parents and other relatives of students includes continuing education, financial literacy and parenting workshops.

We Get Results

MOTM serves more than 80% of Muir students. Weekly program attendance typically exceeds 250 students.

A total of 374 students benefitted from MOTM's homework assistance program with Occidental College tutors during 2011/12.

Students who regularly participate in MOTM have better school attendance and score higher on the California high school exit exam.

MOTM programs have contributed to the steady growth of Muir's Academic Performance Index (API). Base scores have risen from 569 in 2006/07 to 650 in 2010/2011.

FLINTRIDGE CENTER

Relentless Commitment
Transformed Lives

Mission: To create profound and lasting change in Northwest Pasadena and West Altadena through innovative programs that combat the effects of poverty and violence.

"Flintridge takes on the most difficult community problems and then marshals the resources needed to truly make a difference. Its emphasis on youth at the high school level and after high school is so critically needed in Pasadena."

Mayor Bill Bogaard

Equipping teens with skills and knowledge

More than 30% of seniors graduate on schedule due to MOTM's credit recovery classes.

Of the 56 seniors accepted into four-year universities in 2011/12, 54 had regularly attended MOTM programs.

Each program has a student advisor. In this role, students develop valuable leadership experience and earn community service hours.

MOTM has been meeting students' needs for educational and enrichment activities since 2003. Flintridge and local youth-serving agencies work together to provide the programming. This cost-effective and practical strategy enables MOTM to offer its wide range of quality programs.

A high percentage of students who regularly participate report plans to pursue post-secondary education. They also affirm that adults on campus are available for personal support and that their community is interested in helping them succeed.

A PATH TO GRADUATION

After attending multiple MOTM programs for four years, Valeria received a Bill Gates Millennium Scholarship and is now attending UC Berkeley.

Cody, a foster teen with a mother in jail, lived in five cities over eight years and was behind in school units as a senior. On the verge of dropping out, he sought help from MOTM and, through staff's encouragement, he completed MOTM's credit recovery classes and graduated with his class. He now attends Mt. San Antonio College.

Capacity-Building Services For Nonprofits

Lisa Wilson, Program Director, 626/449-0839 x116 / Lisa@Flintridge.org

Strong leaders + stronger nonprofits = stronger communities

Strengthening Nonprofits and Building Leaders Since 1993

Our comprehensive capacity-building services help individuals and organizations to better serve the community.

We employ a multi-faceted approach: (1) We develop local leaders to address community issues; (2) We strengthen the organizational capacity, program effectiveness and sustainability of nonprofit organizations; and (3) We initiate, facilitate and support community partnerships and nonprofit coalitions.

We are the only full-service management support organization in the San Gabriel Valley, serving close to 1,300 individuals and 400 nonprofit agencies throughout the region each year.

How We Build Capacity

Nonprofit organizations play a critical role in a community's well-being. They are often the first line of response to a community's health, service needs and social challenges.

Our professionally-staffed Philanthropy Resource Library offers free access to grantseeking tools and research materials for the nonprofit sector. The focused collection is the only one of its kind in Southern California, and it is the only Cooperating Collection of the Foundation Center serving the San Gabriel Valley. Moreover, the Library is the second highest user of the Foundation Center's online directory of grants and funders in the state.

State-of-the-art, affordable meeting space is available at the Flintridge Retreat & Education Center seven days a week and weekday evenings.

We offer more than 100 educational workshops, trainings and webinars annually that build skills in all areas of nonprofit management.

A diverse pool of nonprofit experts provides one-on-one consultations and coaching.

Our Millennium Leadership program trains a new generation of nonprofit leaders. We also host ongoing peer learning opportunities for board members and executive directors at nonprofit organizations.

Mission: To build hope and resilience in the lives of youth and their families in Northwest Pasadena and West Altadena. We work in partnership with the community to provide life-changing services and to act as a catalyst for pragmatic solutions that reduce community violence, improve academic achievement, and launch career paths for the benefit of the greater Pasadena/Altadena area.

Vision: A healthy, safe community where families thrive, youth reach their full potential, and equality and opportunity are accessible to all.

"Flintridge Center is a resource for nonprofit organizations, not only in Pasadena, but in the entire West San Gabriel Valley, to build their capacity to be more effective. Think of the leverage effect that has in expanding the positive impact for young people in the community."

Mayor Bill Bogaard

Stronger nonprofits, better able to fulfill their vital missions

We Get Results

Flintridge has supported the development of nonprofit leaders and helped them to increase the effectiveness of local organizations such as Catholic Big Brothers Big Sisters, College Access Plan, Day One, Door of Hope, Foothill Vocational Opportunities, Pasadena Youth Center and others.

Nonprofits using our services report increased success in raising funds; improved organizational functioning, more effective board governance, more targeted program evaluation and use of technology; and greater participation in partnerships and collaborations, thereby expanding their impact and reach.

While our services are utilized by nonprofits throughout Los Angeles County, we focus on strengthening organizations serving children, youth and families in Northwest Pasadena/ West Altadena.

This is one of the strategies that Flintridge employs to leverage its efforts to promote community well-being.

nonprofit organizations.

Apprenticeship Preparation Program

Building skills, stability and self-confidence on a pathway to careers in the construction trades

Photos: Brian Biery

Creating Opportunities for Meaningful Employment

The free Apprenticeship Preparation Program (APP) is a pathway to careers in the construction trades for unemployed and under-employed men and women, age 17-1/2 and up.

The certificate course, taught by instructors from Pasadena City College, is offered three times a year at two local community centers. Daytime and evening sessions are available, except during summer.

Over a 16-week period (ten during summer), we cover basic safety, construction math, blueprints, rigging, hand and power tools, "green" building concepts and other topics, including employability skills, to help students successfully apply for paid union apprenticeships.

Students also go on field trips to union apprenticeship training facilities, construction sites and LEED-certified buildings.

In addition, we provide case management and peer-to-peer support services to help individuals overcome challenging life issues that are barriers to employment.

Economic Self-Sufficiency Transforms Lives

California's high unemployment rate (over 10%) is even higher for African Americans and Latinos.

Chronic joblessness affects community well-being as much as families. A loss of hope can lead to crime and gang involvement.

Flintridge launched the Apprenticeship Preparation Program in 2008 in partnership with an alliance of community stakeholders to provide high-risk individuals with a chance for productive and rewarding lives.

The construction trades offer health insurance, retirement options and opportunities for advancement. Prior gang connections, tattoos or a criminal record are not deterrents to career success.

"I thought being a man meant going to prison. Now I've learned another way. This program saved my life ... and probably my son's life too."

APP Graduate

It doesn't matter where you've been It matters where you're going!

We Get Results

As of summer 2012, more than 230 students have completed the 240-hour course.

Eighty-three graduates have enrolled in apprenticeship programs or been placed in jobs, six are continuing their education, and two have started their own businesses (solar installation and painting).

Flintridge works with a variety of agencies and contractors to identify jobs for graduates, including the City of Pasadena's First Source Local Hiring Program, Clark Construction Company and B&P Painting, and has established strong relationships with more than a dozen trade unions.

More than two dozen graduates were hired to assist the city's cleanup crews after a hurricane-force windstorm downed over a thousand trees in December 2011.

Thirteen graduates have been hired to work on Pasadena's Rose Bowl renovations.

In assessment surveys at the end of the course, most all students report that they have learned useful skills, gained confidence in obtaining future employment and increased their knowledge of the construction trades. They also report improved life skills, particularly with career planning, goal setting and workplace communication.

Real lives, real work, real hope

Growing up wasn't easy for Sean Davis. With a mother suffering from lupus and a father addicted to heroin, he lacked support from caring adults. Living on his own at age 21, he was arrested after a domestic dispute and served time in prison. Upon release, Sean was ready to turn his life around, but with a criminal record, he found few opportunities. Then, an APP graduate referred him to the program. After completing the course, Sean applied for an apprenticeship. He was sponsored into the Tile, Marble & Terrazzo Union and is now working on the Rose Bowl renovation project for an area contractor. "We all make mistakes," he says, "but it's important to see them as a chance for change." He gives thanks to Flintridge, "Flintridge gave me the ability to be a loving father and to provide for my children. My life is falling into place ... finally."

Youth of Promise Mentoring Program

Police and firefighters help struggling kids find their promise

Changing Lives, One Match at a Time

Washington Middle School students, identified as high-need and high-risk, are paired with volunteer mentors from the Pasadena Police, Fire and City Departments.

We focus on youth with grade point averages well below 2.0, high truancy and absentee rates and youth who are gang-impacted.

All Youth Need Guidance and Support from Caring Adults

Located in NW Pasadena, Washington is the lowest performing middle school in the Pasadena Unified School district with a 2012 API score of 694. (The state target is 800.)

More than three fourths of the student population is Latino and 90% qualify for the federal free and reduced lunch program, an indicator of poverty.

These youngsters face numerous socio-economic challenges that present obstacles to school achievement.

We Work Closely with Families

Parents and caregivers of mentees participate in support groups led by MSW interns from CA State University Northridge.

Since many parents are Spanish speakers, our bilingual interns introduce them to the concept of mentoring and facilitate communication about family issues.

Mentor Requirements

- Mentors provide support and guidance and serve as positive role models, connecting weekly with the youngsters, either one-on-one or in small groups, for a minimum of five hours a month.
- Mentors make a one-year minimum commitment. However, for greatest impact, we encourage matches to continue through high school graduation.
- All mentors undergo a screening process that includes an application, interview, program orientation and reference checks.
- Prior to being matched, mentors must attend a mentor training. Flintridge provides ongoing sessions in mentoring best practices throughout the year.

Our Goal: Helping kids stay in school!

We Build Mentoring Skills

Flintridge offers intensive training in evidence-based mentoring practices. Our workshops are free and open to anyone interested in mentoring.

Flintridge helped create and now manages a coalition of local agencies providing mentoring services— Pasadena Mentoring Partners.

We Get Results

After just one year, 100% of our first group of mentees improved in at least one area— behavior, grades, relationships, dress code— despite crisis-level home conditions.

Most importantly, these young people know that their mentors believe in them, and they see possibilities for achieving their dreams.

Our goal for fall 2012 is to have 40 students matched with police, firefighter or city agency mentors.

Mentoring Works

At 15, Carlos is at a crossroads. Drugs and gangs have claimed relatives, and some have paid a deadly price. His mentor, a Pasadena Police Officer, is doing all he can to help Carlos pursue his dreams of a better life. But the challenges are huge. Carlos is doing poorly in high school. Home is a cramped apartment where he sleeps in the living room with two younger brothers. When his father disappears for weeks, Carlos worries that his mother won't be able to make ends meet. Sometimes, to escape, he'll run away. But through the help of his mentor, Carlos has found stability and support. For a year now, they have connected each week for lunch, an activity or just to talk. The officer encourages Carlos to keep up with his studies and was a major influence in his graduating from middle school. He has introduced Carlos to local business leaders and has taken him to I-Hop for his first waffle. At some point, Carlos will choose a direction. Mentoring tilts the odds that he will make the right one.
