Statement: The foundation does not engage in fundraising and does not pay for any fundraising activities on its behalf. The founders of the foundation David and Jane Hummel, fund the foundation periodically as the need arises to enable the foundation to make grants to public charities. Unless and until the foundation would obtain more than $10,000 per year from the general public, it is unnecessary for the foundation to annually re-register and pay the registration fee to the state of New Jersey since it is not required.
