Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

Outreach & Communications

Outreach & Membership encompasses outreach efforts to interested & supportive individuals, organizations, and at-large members, through organized events & meeting, newsletters, action alerts, participation in public markets, community programs & meetings, and fairs & similar holiday events. The membership component more directly focuses on at-large members, donors, and other supporters, with emphasis on providing direct on-going support and communications that keep membership engaged and informed on the efforts and issues facing conservation in Southeast Alaska.

Communication focuses more directly on public communications in general and helping to inform and shape the public perception on conservation issues through a balanced and timely media program that links public needs and issues with the conservation perspective. The Communications program also supports Outreach and Membership through more targeted media efforts that reaches out to members and supporters.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Renewable Energy Program Supporting and encouraging support for clean Renewable Energy alternatives throughout SE Alaska communities.

ATPP is the Alaska Transportation Priorities Program and it was not a SEACC program.

SEACC supported another organization (ATPP) by providing administrative & accounting services under a contract. That support ended in August - September 2010, though we've found ourselves resolving outstanding bills and accounts from time-to-time.
