The Friends of the Bloomfield Township Public Library is a typical local group supporting their local public library. Books and media are donated throughout the year by local citizens and are sold at minimal prices through "used book sales" during the year.

Membership is collected for early entry to book sales and to support the friends.

Contributions may be made throughout the year as memorials.

Friends have use of all library services and facilities without charge.

All officers, board members and sale personnel are volunteers.

The friends contribute funds for special library projects and public events. Fund requests are received from library departments and administrators throughout the year.
