SchC_P2B_S00_L01	Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1	The St John's University's Office of Government Relations and the President are the primary liaisons to State and Federal government through their regular communication regarding the University's mission, goals and programs. The Office of Government Relations also apprises St John's University's officials about pertinent government activities to ensure the University is sufficiently informed. The primary focus of the University's effort is directed toward helping government representatives learn more about St John's University. The University's participation in the legislative process is primarily through its memberships in the Commission on Independent Colleges and Universities (CICU) and the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities (NAICU). St John's University does not have any other lobbying activities other than those listed on lines 1d, 1g, and 1i.
