Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

The Vocational Clubhouses Program: The Clubhouse Model of Psychiatric Rehabilitation is used at the Capitol Clubhouse in Augusta, the High Hopes Clubhouse in Waterville, and Looking Ahead Clubhouse in Lewiston.
Their mission is to improve the quality of life for adults who experience mental illness by providing social, educational and employment opportunities. The Clubhouses help support members with overcoming barriers to employment by offering services such as job development, job placement, job coaching and job support.

The Multi-Systemic Therapy Program is provided to children and family members in their homes. The MST program addresses serious issues that, if unresolved, could lead to a child's removal from the home. MST helps identify, support and strengthen the family's skills and resources to meet the needs of the child and family. This therapeutic technique is designed to reduce out-of-home placements through the use of intensive in-home and community-based interventions.

Family Behavioral Health and Visitation Services provides an intensive, time-limited home and community-based intervention service for families experiencing difficulties and/or conflict. The program provides safe, appropriate, therapeutic contact between children and parents who have Kennebec Behavioral Health's School-Based Program has been helping school-age children and adolescents in the school setting since 1996. This clinical program enhances traditional guidance programs in schools accross central and mid-coast Maine.

The Substance Abuse and Co-Occurring Disorders Program helps adults, adolescents and families whose lives have been disrupted by harmful relationships with abused substances. The program provides integrated services for people who have mental health concerns co-occurring with substance-use problems.

The Independent Housing Program offers independent housing units which provide income-eligible consumers with housing and access to Kennebec Behavioral Health programs and services and other community services. The program also manages two rental subsidy programs for eligible individuals that pay a monthly rent subsidy to local landlords for eligible consumers helping to reduce their housing costs.

Adult and Youth Homeless Outreach Services include outreach and engagement, assessment, case-management linkage with housing and supports and linkages to mainstream resources.

Children's Case Management enables parents to become informed about resources and to be able to effectively advocate for their child. For children who need mental health treatment, case management specialists can assist the parent or caregiver, teach the family to maximize the

The Halcyon House Emergency Shelter for Youth is a 10-bed shelter in central Maine that provides emergency care for kids ages 10-17. The shelter is for runaway and homeless youth or those youth who are at risk of homelessness. The shelter provides homeless youths with food, changes of clothing and personal-care items, a safe place to be and sleep, case management, and transportation to school and help with schoolwork.

Shelter staff helps youth identify their needs; provides them with three healthy meals a day and room; crisis intervention support; 24-hour supervision; mental health, substance-abuse and/or sexual-identity counseling and support; and referral to and coordination with other services that include educational, medical and counseling services. Case planning at the shelter guides youth toward a stable, safe living arrangement.

Our Developmental Services Targeted Case Management (DSTCM) service is for adults who the State of Maine has determined are eligible for case management based on an MR diagnosis. (People with Asperger's and Autism can also qualify.) Case managers help with the development of individual service plans called PCPs (Person Centered Plans). Case managers will also make referrals, complete assessments, coordinate services, ensure that client goals and needs are being addressed, and monitor consumer satisfaction.
