|                                        | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | Agency conflict of interest policy is available via the intranet, as well as in the employee handbook. The Board of Directors must report potential conflicts of interest at least annually. The Chief Executive Officer has delegated the responsibility for corporate compliance to the Chief Administrative Officer and Corporate Compliance Officer. Potential conflicts of interest are investigated by an independent team and reported to the executive team, the Board of Directors, and quality assurance governance committees as appropriate for the level of conflict of interest.                                                                                       |
|                                        | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15  | The current Chief Executive Officer compensation was determined during the hiring process by the Board of Directors with guidance from a professional executive search firm and data from Goodwill Industries International. On a regular basis, the Chief Administrative Officer through Human Resources gathers data from the external sources from comparable organizations to determine compensation ranges for the executive team and the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer then determines the compensation for the specific executive team members. An ad hoc Board of Directors compensation committee approves and captures the decision in the minutes. |
