Facts And Circumstances Test
Part II, Line 17b--The Brunswick Area Student Aid Fund was organized in 1956 so that area citizens could support graduates of the area high schools who wished to pursue higher education. SOURCES OF SUPPORT Scholarship funds were initially provided by broadly based community fundraising activities. Over time, 38 separate permanently named scholarship funds have been created, these are managed by the Fund which can generally spend a fixed percentage, 3.2% to 4.0% of the total value of the funds. Occasionally, larger gifts or bequests are added as permanently named scholarship funds. The Fund is also the beneficiary of the Marion McKenney & Emery W. Booker Education Trust, a charitable trust set up under the wills of a childless couple who wished to benefit the children of the area. The bequest was not solicited by the fund, and the trust exerts no control over the activities of the fund or the selection of scholarship recipients. No relatives of the donors nor trustees of the trust serve on the Board of the Fund. The Fund considers the McKinney Booker donation to be an unusual contribution even though it is ongoing, because of this lack of control. Because of the income from the permanently named scholarship funds, the Fund enjoys substantial investment income, and has failed to meet the 33 1/3% public support test in recent years. The Fund believes that these funds should be treated as from the general public since they were donated by many different groups. Many were in turn established by fund raising from the general public. For example, the last fundraiser for one of the memorials had over 100 participants and raised approximately $8,000. The separate funds may honor the memory of an individual, and may support students with specific goals, but they are not controlled by the families of the individuals so honored. Additional support each year comes from grants and donations that are not earmarked for permanently named scholarship funds. Examples include a yearly grant from the Town of Bowdoin, a yearly grant from Brunswick High School from student activities, occasional grants from high school class reunions, occasional one-time named scholarship grants in memory of persons who have died, and unrestricted donations from members of the general public. REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNING BODY The 18-24 person governing board is made up of a wide range of community leaders. These leaders include business people, teachers, lawyers, other professionals, and citizens with an interest in furthering the education of local young people. PUBLIC SERVICES Scholarships have been provided annually since 1956. In the past year, scholarships totalling $227,300 were awarded to 243 students. The fund also provided 1 computer scholarship. In addition, the fund assists a small number of K-12 students who have an unmet need that might interfere with their education. Booker Education Trust, a trust created by bequests a number of years ago. No family members sit on the board of the organization nor. The annual contribution from the Trust is excluded from Schedule A as an unusual contribution. Prior contributions from the Trust have been distributed, in part, and invested, in part. Approximately 32% of the interest and dividend income of the organization represents earnings on this contribution. If these amounts were excluded from the computation of support, the public support percentage would be approximately 41%2) The organization receives substantial donated services from community volunteers in connection with its fundraising activities, its board activities, and its scholarship activities.
