Accordingly, no provisions for income taxes related to tax-exempt activities is recorded in the financial statements. The college recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. There have been no material changes in unrecognized benefits during the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011. It is the college's policy to record estimated interest and penalties (if any) as part of management and general expense. Management believes that the college's income tax returns for fiscal years ending prior to June 30, 2009 are no longer subject to examination by tax authorities in its major tax jurisdictions.
