Endowment Funds, Part V:

Generally, the Foundation manages its funds using a total return concept, which emphasizes total investment return, including interest and dividends and realized and unrealized gains and losses. Annually the Foundation's board of directors determines the level of grant making based on two factors that serve to stabilize annual spending levels and preserve the real value of the endowment over time. In fiscal years

2012 and 2011, those factors are 70% of the prior year's spending, adjusted for inflation, plus 30% of a spending rate at 6.4% for 2012 and

6.0% for 2011 of the estimated fair value of its discretionary endowment and 5.4% of the estimated fair value of its designated endowment.

The discretionary endowment is made up of funds with no restrictions and funds with field of interest restrictions placed on the way income may be used. The designated endowment is composed of funds created for specifically named agencies or projects.

Uncertain Tax Positions, Part X, Line 2:

The Foundation is a tax-exempt organization as described in section 501(c)(3) and is generally exempt from income taxes pursuant to section 501 (c)(3) of the internal revenue code (the Code) and is generally exempt from income taxes pursuant to section 501 (a) of the Code and qualifies as a public charity under section 170 (b)(1)(a)(vi) of the Code.

The Foundation has not taken any tax positions which would have a material effect, individually or in the aggregate, upon the Foundation's financial statements. The Foundation believes it has not taken any significant uncertain tax positions or any tax positions that would jeopardize the Foundation's tax-exempt status.

Contributions, Part I, Column (B):

The organization is reporting the number of contributions in column (B).

Non Cash Contributions, Part I, Line 32B:

When the Boston Foundation is notified that a donor will be making a contribution of a publicly traded security, instructions are provided to the donor to deliver the shares to the Boston Foundation's brokerage account. The Foundation typically uses one brokerage firm (Barclays Capital, Inc.) for publicly traded security transactions. The Foundation also holds accounts at a small number of other brokerage firms in order to facilitate efficient transfers for donors with accounts at those firms. When securities are received, the shares are sold as soon as possible, typically upon receipt or the next business day. Upon settlement, proceeds are delivered to the Boston Foundation.

The Foundation may receive contributions of closely held or restricted securities that are not sold upon receipt, but are sold either upon the lifting of the restriction or when a liquidation event occurs.

Occasionally the Foundation receives non-cash contributions such as limited partnership interests, real estate, or other assets which may require the Boston Foundation to engage a third party to handle the sale. When the Foundation is notified of such gifts, the asset is reviewed to determine the appropriate sales agent. The Foundation is not involved in the valuation of non-cash contributions. Donors are responsible for obtaining an independent third-party valuation.

Reduce Violence, Especially Among Youth:

Strategy: Reduce the incidence of violence in Boston Neighborhoods, especially among youth.

Approaches:

1) Street-level gang intervention: Increase the number of highly trained and supported Streetworkers, deployed to establish relationships with proven-risk youth and intervene in cycles of violence, resolve conflicts, and connect youth to services. - Based on successes in Boston Chicago, Providence and other cities that have mounted similar interventions, effective and proactive street-level intervention is key to disrupting cycles of retaliatory gang violence.

2) Neighborhood-Based Service Delivery: Establish collaborative, multi-faceted neighborhood-based network of programming and social services for proven-risk youth. - Significant anecdotal evidence suggests that enabling access to positive pathways that make participation in violent criminal behavior less attractive leads to a reduction in youth violence.

Review Process, Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11A:

The CFO with input from senior management, compiles the information to be included in the Federal Form 990, which then is prepared by TBF and reviewed by TBF's tax advisors. The completed returns are presented to the Audit Committee, which includes the Board Chair as an Ex Officio member, and whose duties are governed by a formal charter, for review and formal approval. A complete copy copy of the return is distributed to all voting members of the Board of Directors for their review and comment in advance of the returns filing. The Audit Committee also reports to the full Board, which votes to ratify the actions taken by the Audit Committee, including the approval of the return. A copy of the return is made available publicly on the Boston Foundation's website.

recuse himself and leave the meeting until the discussion regarding the matter and any related votes have concluded. Employees are sent all grants dockets and asked to identify any potential apparent conflicts of interest. Employees are required to refrain from involvement in

Whistle-blower Policy, Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 13:

be made to the Chief Financial Officer or the Chair of the Audit Committee. The Chair of the Audit Committee routinely asks whether there have been any such complaints.

Compensation Policy, Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The Boston Foundation's standing Compensation Committee, which includes the Board Chair as an Ex Officio member, is governed by a formal charter and follows the Boston Foundation's formal total compensation strategy. The total compensation strategy requires the Boston Foundation to retain the services of an independent compensation specialist to survey salaries and compensation of comparable positions within local peer organizations. The specialist submits a formal report to the Compensation Committee. Guided by the report, the Compensation Committee recommends compensation for the upcoming fiscal year. The Compensation Committee then reports to the full Board, which votes to ratify the actions taken by the Compensation Committee, including the recommended compensation.
