SchD_P05_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The College's endowment consists of 84 individual funds established for a variety of purposes including both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments. Spending from endowments is donor restricted to various purposes such as providing scholarships and financial assistance to students and to fund professorships. The spending policy utilizes an annual distribution percentage approved by the Board of Trustees and is designed to provide a stable level of financial support and to preserve the endowment's real value. In establishing these policies, the College considers the intent of the donor-restricted fund, the expected return on its endowment and its programming needs.
SchD_P10_S00_L02	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The College generally does not provide for income taxes since it is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. ASC 740, Income Taxes, permits an entity to recognize the benefit and requires accrual of an uncertain tax position only when the position is "more likely than not" to be sustained in the event of examination by tax authorities. In evaluating whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold, the College must presume that the position will be examined by the appropriate taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information. ASC 740 also provides guidance on the recognition, measurement and classification of income tax uncertainties, along with any related interest or penalties. Tax positions deemed to meet the "more likely than not" threshold are recorded as a tax expense in the current year. The College has analyzed all open tax years, defined by the statutes of limitations, for all major jurisdictions. Open tax years are those that are open for exam by taxing authorities. Major jurisdictions for the College include Federal and the state of Massachusetts. As of June 30, 2012, open Federal and Massachusetts tax years for the College include tax years ended June 30, 2009 through June 30, 2011. The College has no examination in progress. The College believes it has no significant uncertain tax positions.
