Form 990, Part I, Line 6

The school requires families to be involved in the school activities as part of the Montessori experience. All families are required to give 35 hours per year of volunteer service to the school. For some of our students, their Grandparents also want to be involved with their grandchild's Montessori experience and volunteer their time as well.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Achievement collaborative efforts.

This allows our children to ask the biggest questions and explore the universe in all its complexity, including its natural, scientific, moral and religious complexity. Our students learn to work alongside each other, take individual responsibility for their work, and flourish in an environment where older students often "teach" younger students new skills or concepts.

Please see the Statement of Program Services and Mission Statement attached.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11a - Organization's Process to Review Form 990. Copies of Form 990 was submitted to the Head Master for distribution to the Board for their review. After all questions answered, a final Form 990 was prepared for signing and submitting to the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy. Each year, members of the Board of Directors and key employees are asked to sign a conflict of interest statement.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official.

The Board of Directors meets each year with the Headmaster to discuss and calculate the Headmaster's compensation.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Process for Officers. The Finance Committee, each year, reviews and consults with the Headmaster on the operating budget and individual salaries.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Governing Documents Disclosure Explanation

All governing documents are made available to the public upon request the school's administrative staff.

Why Choose Good Shepherd Montessori School?

Our goal at Good Shepherd is to inspire a lifelong love of learning. Our culture is based on mutual respect, understanding, and a collaborative partnership with parents, students, and faculty.

We work to educate the whole child – academically, spiritually, socially, and emotionally. We celebrate the uniqueness of each child and respect each child's individual interests and learning style. As a cornerstone of Montessori education, we use an integrated, interdisciplinary approach to learning.

Our students learn the art of critical thinking, researching, self-expression, and practical problem solving. Our classroom environment fosters independent thought as well as collaborative efforts. Children learn to work alongside one another; they take individual responsibility for their work, yet also flourish in an environment where older children often "teach" the younger children a new skill or concept. Artificial competition for grades is eliminated, since each child works at his/her own level, and is compared only to the goals set by the classroom teacher and himself/herself.

This provides our students with a sense of the school as a community and distinguishes Good Shepherd from other schools in our area.

History of Good Shepherd Montessori School

Good Shepherd Montessori School opened its doors for the first time in September 2002, but the origin of Good Shepherd is found in years of friendships, conversations, and graduate school discussions. Good Shepherd began among a group of passionate parents who came together with a common desire to create a school that would be faithful to Maria Montessori's original vision, that would foster peace in a socio-economically, racially, and ethnically diverse environment, and that would be committed to Sofia Cavalletti's concept of religious formation found in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Her religious formation model was so vital to the mission of this new school that the parents chose to name the school after it, Good Shepherd Montessori School.

Central to the mission of Good Shepherd, then, is the religious potential of the child. Along with this, the parents desired a school that would serve the people whom Maria Montessori served when she began her school in the poor neighborhoods of Rome. Because of this, Good Shepherd is committed to bringing children of diverse economic and social backgrounds together in a learning environment of respect. Good Shepherd is committed to working with social entrepreneurs, parents, friends, and community leaders to secure matching scholarships for one-third of its student body.

We formed a Board of Directors, a nonprofit organization, found classroom space in the First Christian Church in downtown South Bend and opened with one lower elementary classroom and 16 children. Fueled by diligence and determination, Good Shepherd has continued to grow. In 2003 we added a second lower elementary classroom and in 2004 opened our first upper elementary classroom.

2009 marked a moment in history for Good Shepherd. We opened our Junior High classroom to serve children grades seven through eight. It is one of the few Montessori Junior Highs in the state of Indiana.

We also purchased the First Christian Church building that we originally leased. We are located in downtown South Bend, within 10 minutes of the University of Notre Dame, and are on well-traveled Transpo bus routes. We are currently pursuing joint accreditation with the Independent Schools Association of the Central States (ISACS) and the American Montessori Society (AMS).

Our first Primary Classroom will open in the fall of 2012, another milestone, as we celebrate our first ten years.

Mission Statement

Good Shepherd Montessori School is a diverse, cooperative learning community, governed by an independent Board of Directors that uses the Montessori method to nurture the character and uniqueness of the child and to inspire wonder and a joy of learning. It fosters spiritual growth in the Christian tradition and cultivates compassionate relationships with all people and just stewardship of the world's resources.

Our mission is based on the following beliefs:

We believe that all persons are created in the image and likeness of God.

We believe that diversity is God's creative tapestry and it is to be sought and celebrated, especially socio-economic and racial-ethnic diversity.

We believe in a cooperative school that depends on students, teachers, and parents to work together to accomplish the mission.

We believe that education of the whole person is an ongoing process that occurs most successfully when life activities at home and school are consistent.

We believe in the vision of child development, educational philosophy, methodology, and learning environment created by Dr. Maria Montessori.

We believe that respect for the child is the foundation for academic excellence and that the aim of education is to touch the imaginations of children and ignite their God-given curiosity and enthusiasm for discovery.

We believe that the spiritual formation of the child is inseparable from the intellectual formation, and is deepened and celebrated best through the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a Montessori approach focusing on Scripture and Catholic liturgy.

We believe in a plan of cosmic education which provides awareness of the universe and each child's unique place in the universe.

We believe that the ultimate aim of a Montessori education is to foster world peace and work toward global justice.
