SchD_P10_S00_L02	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The School of Law accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under scrutiny by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a "cumulative probability assessment" that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. The School of Law has identified its tax status as a tax exempt entity as its only significant tax position, however, the School of Law has determined that such tax position does not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. The School of Law is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdictions. The School of Law's federal tax return is generally open for examinations for three years following the date filed.

F990_P03_S00_L01	Form 990, Part III, Line 1	The mission of the School of Law is to promote justice and the rule of law through education, scholarship, and service. In furtherance of its mission, the School of Law seeks to: 1. Provide an excellent legal education to men and women who aspire to the practice of law or to other occupations in which both they and society-at-large will benefit from their understanding of and dedication to the law. An excellent legal education teaches not only legal doctrine, policy, history and theory, but also how to think critically about justice and the law. 2. Make meaningful contributions to legal scholarship. Meaningful contributions are those that provide analysis, insights, or information to those who are interested in justice and the law, including lawyers, judges, legislators, policy-makers, scholars, journalists, and the public-at-large. 3. Provide service to the legal profession and the wider community in ways that advance justice and the rule of law.

F990_P06_S0B_L12c	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Directors, officers, key employees and managers are all required to annually (or more frequently in the event of a new potential conflict) disclose any potential conflicts of interest by completing a conflict of interest disclosure form. These disclosures are collected by the Office of General Counsel, compiled into a report and provided for vetting to either (a) senior management for the officers, key employees, and managers or (b) the School of Law's Board of Directors for the Director's disclosures. Those disclosures that require further investigation or attention are addressed by their respective overseers on a case by case basis. The School of Law's Conflict of Interest Policy and by-laws both contain provisions that provide for individuals with actual or potential conflicts to refrain from participating in discussions of, and voting on, matters where such a conflict exists.
