Part VI (Section A) Question 2

Some trustees of Webb Institute are alumni of the college. As naval architects and marine engineers, alumni trustees often own or belong to firms doing business in the marine industry. The firms that alumni trustees belong to range in size from small partnerships and LLC's, all the way to corporations. Given the small size of Webb Institute's graduating classes (typically around 20 graduates per year) and given the relatively small alumni serving as trustees to have forged on occasion, a business relationship with each other. However, never has there been a direct or indirect business relationship existing between the Board of Trustees and the Institute itself.

Part VI (Section B) Line 11A - The Form 990 with all supporting schedules was sent by e-mail to members of the Finance Comm. for the final review and approval before filing. Webb Institute was granted two extension requests to file the 2012 Form 990 by May 15th, 2013. The Board of Trustees has agreed to rely on the expertise of the Finance Committee to approve the filing of the tax return.

Part VI (Section B) Line 12c - At least once each year, the Board of Trustees is required to sign and renew a Conflict of Interest Policy Statement. Any conflict of interest that may arise during a trustee's term requires immediate action and full disclosure. Depending on circumstances any trustee that has a conflict of interest surrounding a specific issue must recuse from all decision making processes with respect to the issue at hand and/or under review.

Part VI (Section B) Line 15a - the compensation sub-committee, an independent body of the Executive Committee, is responsible for the determination and awarding of the President's annual salary. Salary increases are merit based and the committee consults data from various independent sources and/or peer organizations to determine annual compensation which is contemporaneously documented in the Minutes to the meeting. The President, pending Board Approval, is responsible for determining the annual salary (and/or raises) of key and/or other employees at the Institute. The President relies on published data obtained from independent sources specific to the regional area as well as comparable data of similar schools positions, and job responsibilities in order to determine employee salaries.

Part VI (Section C) Line 19 - Webb Institute's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, financial statements and Form 990 returns(s) are stored and maintained on campus within the appropriate administrative offices. It is Webb's policy to make available these documents upon the request of a third party. Webb's Form 990 return (s) are also open and available for public inspection on Guidestar.com

Schedule E (line 6a) - On a Federal level, Pell and Stafford loans are received from students. On a state level, Bundy Aid and a small annual library grant (less than $4,000) are also received by the Institute.

Part XI (Line 5) - the amount shown represents the (Net) total change in unrealized gains/losses on all investment assets booked to market for the period ended June 30, 2012.
