INSciTE ILLINOIS

Inspiring Youth in Science and Technology

506 North Maple Street
Prospect Heights, IL 60070-1321

17 October, 2012

Subject: INSciTE Illinois (Tax ID 20-0707641) Facts and Circumstances Test

To whom it may Concern:

INSciTE Illinois is submitting this statement to demonstrate its compliance with the financial requirements of a public charity.

Background

INSciTE Illinois (www.INSciTEillinois.org) is the Illinois state independent partner of United States Foundation for Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology (“FIRST” or “US FIRST”) (www.usfirst.org) to deliver the FIRST LEGO League (FLL) (www.firstlegoleague.org) program in Illinois. US FIRST is a public charity that teamed with the Lego Company in the creation of an annual robotics tournament series for 9 to 14 year old youth. There are no restrictions other than age to participate. The objective of this global program is to inspire young people to consider engineering and science as a future career in a fun and interesting way.

History

FIRST LEGO League’s initial season in 1998 started with 200 teams and has grown to over 20,000 internationally. In Illinois from 1998 to 2002, tournaments were sponsored and run by the Ariel foundation and Motorola Inc. To facilitate growth and a broader sponsor base INSciTE Illinois was incorporated in 2003. INSciTE Illinois is solely responsible for managing and delivering FLL in Illinois.

Program Description

The tournaments require teams of youths to create robots that complete predefined tasks in competition with other teams. The format of the tournament series is much like a sporting event with a progression of winning teams from local to state to national and international competitions. An academic presentation on the annual theme of the competition is also a team requirement. The themes change each year and have spanned topics of: space travel, oceanography, energy, and the environment. Tournaments are open to the general public at no-charge and are locally promoted. The state tournament and many local tournaments are covered by print and television media.

Public Financial Support

When it was first created, INSciTE Illinois focused a large portion of its efforts on growing its program and making its programs accessible to a larger percentage of the public. While getting more children involved will always be foremost to the organization, INSciTE Illinois has been making a concerted effort over the past few years to garner additional funding from the general public. For example, INSciTE Illinois has asked spectators at its events for small cash donations. It has also run targeted fund raising campaign to help offset the costs of sending teams to National and International Tournaments. As noted in the financial statements, these efforts have proven successful by evidenced by an increasing percentage of public support.

The attached Schedule A to Form 990EZ shows a total public support percentage of 27% for the period 2007 to 2011. This percentage is expected to continue to increase over time.

Conclusion

As noted above, INSciTE Illinois has been successful in drawing children from throughout Illinois to its program. It has also been successful in attracting volunteers with diverse backgrounds to assist it in carrying out its exempt purposes. Finally, its efforts to attract funding from the general public have proven successful over the past 5 years and the organization anticipates that contributions from the general public will continue to grow along with the program. Based upon the foregoing, INSciTE Illinois believes that it complies with the financial requirements applicable to public charities.
