SchD_P10_S00_L02	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	TMA Properties Foundation, Inc follows the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. The guidance clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements by prescribing a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Foundation's policy is to record a liability for any tax position taken that is beneficial to the Foundation, including any related interest and penalties, when it is more likely than not the position taken by management will be overturned by a taxing authority upon examination. Management believes there are no such positions as of June 30, 2012 and, accordingly, no liability has been accrued. The Foundation's income tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal and state authorities. The Foundation is not aware of any activities that would jeopardize its tax-exempt status. The Foundation is not aware of any activities that are subject to tax on unrelated business income or excise or other taxes. The tax returns for fiscal years ending 2008 to 2012 are open to examination by federal and state authorities.
