| PART X, LINE 2 | | Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes clarifies that accounting of uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the School and has concluded that as of June 30, 2012 and 2011, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements. The School recognizes accrued interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax provisions, if any. There were no income tax-related interest and penalties recorded for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011. The income tax returns of the School for June 30, 2011, 2010 and 2009 are subject to examination by the IRS and other various taxing authorities, generally for three years after they were filed. |

| SCHEDULE I, PART I, LINE 2 | | All families of Stevens Cooperative School are eligible to apply for financial aid. Those who opt to apply must comply with the requirements listed on the Stevens website. The process includes a Stevens application in addition to completion of the application developed by Tads, an outside vendor which specializes in assisting independent schools with collecting pertinent information (IE Tax Returns) and evaluating the financial status of families. Once a complete packet is received the financial aid committee meets to review the application to assess a family's needs. The Director of Admissions communicates the award amount to the family and the enrollment contract reflects the reduced tuition. Upon communication of the award a family may request a reconsideration of the award amount. A subsequent review may also be requested should a family's financial situation change subsequent to the submission of the application. |
