Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	The Organization's federal exempt tax returns for 2009-2012 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed. The Organization's New Jersey exempt tax returns for 2008-2012 are subject to examination by the appropriate authorities, generally for four years after they were filed. The statute of limitations does not apply to unfiled returns. The Organization believes that all required tax returns have been filed. In the event it would be required, the Organization would recognize interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses. The Organization has not recognized any amounts for interest and penalties accrued at June 30, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	After the 990 is received from the preparers, it is distributed to the finance committee for review. Once the finance committee has reviewed the 990 it is presented at the next board meeting for approval before it is filed.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Beginning in December of 2009, every officer and director was given an annual independence questionnaire to monitor their independence. No conflicts have been noted. If a conflict does arise, the person shall notify the board president, they shall not partake in discussions, direct or indirect, regarding such issues and shall not vote on said issue.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	During the fiscal year ended 6/30/09 Anchor House welcomed a new executive director. A committee was established from the board of directors to hire a new director and determine her salary. The new executive director's salary was approved by the entire board as part of the budget for the following fiscal year. In addition, Anchor House paid an outside firm in May 2009 to conduct a salary study for all employees of Anchor House, including the executive director. This process was documented as part of the board minutes. The executive director has an annual review every September by members of the board. Salary increases are approved annually by the board as part of the budget. There were no other officers or key employees of the organization therefore question 15b has been answered "no".
