	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Princeton Friends School does not supply a copy of the Form 990 to the entire board. Instead, the organization's policy is for the Treasurer of the board to review the Form 990 and then report to the entire governing body.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization monitors and enforces its conflict of interest policy by requiring each trustee and senior administrator to sign an annual statement disclosing any conflict of interests.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The executive director's salary is reviewed annually by the personnel committee. This process includes the review of salary data results compiled annually by the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS) through its Statsonline annual statistical data survey. Comparative compensation reports are reviewed to benchmark groups, including the New Jersey Association of Independent Schools (NJ AIS), Friends Council on Education (FCOE), and Princeton area independent schools. This is done annually, the last time was in June 2011. The final agreement was documented in a contract signed by the executive director as well as the clerk/president of the board. The organization has no other officers or key employees therefore question 15b is answered "no".
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Princeton Friends School makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request. In addition, the governing documents and policies are made available to the public via various school publications including the student & parent handbook, personnel manual, and head of school's annual report. The development director will usually send the annual audit report of financial statements and Form 990 to organizations that Princeton Friends School solicits for grants.
