Donor Bill of Rights

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To ensure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the nonprofit organizations and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have these rights:

I.

To be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.

II.

To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.

III.

To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.

IV.

To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.

V.

To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.

VI.

To be assured that information about their donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.

VII.

To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.

VIII.

To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organization or hired solicitors.

IX.

To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that an organization may intend to share.

X.

To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

The Donor Bill of Rights was created by the American Association of Fund Raising Counsel (AAFRC), Association for Healthcare Philanthropy (AHP), the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), and the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE). It has also been embraced by

The Middlesex County College Foundation

Name of the organization

Middlesex County College Foundation Inc.

Employer identification number

22-6079662

Part VI, Line 4: The Middlesex County College Foundation Inc. Bylaws were revised in 2011, and the Board of Directors was divided into a governing Board of Trustees and a non-governing Advisory Board. The revised Bylaws were adopted, and the Trustees elected, at the Foundation's Annual Meeting on November 17, 2011

Part VI, Line 11a: Due to the large number of Board members (26), it is not practical for each member to review Form 990 and the audited financial statements prior to filing. Therefore, such documents are provided to the Audit Committee and to the key representatives of the Finance Committee, the organization's Chair, Executive Director, Treasurer, and the VP for Finance of Middlesex County College.

Part VI, Line 12c: The Foundation has a Conflict of Interest Policy for Trustees and Directors to review and sign new declarations effective for each fiscal year. Forms are included in Board members' packets for completion by each Board member and returned to the Foundation.

Part VI, Line 15a: The appropriate compensation package for the Executive Director is determined by reference to industry-specific reports and other studies of comparable organizations. The Executive Director acts as the Chief Operating Officer. Areas of leadership responsibility which are taken into account include fund raising, scholarship administration, financial management, personnel skills, development of best practices and similar qualities. Compensation is directly linked to experience, performance objectives and job description

Part VI, Line 15b: There are no officers or other employees who are compensated, , who meet the definition of "Key employee".

Part VI, Line 19: Governing documents, conflicts of interest policy and financial information will be made available upon receipt at the organization's office of a written request for such information. Form 990 is available on "Guidestar" website.

Part VII, Section A: Average hours per week of the Board members has been estimated by the organization. All of the Board members are volunteers who receive no compensation or expense reimbursement. As non-employees they are not required to file time sheets or otherwise account for their time. They give of their time and expertise to promote the mission of the organization, expending the level of effort they feel is required to fulfill their obligation. Asking them to quantify this effort in terms of hours would be an affront to their dedication and discourage other qualified persons from considering service to the organization.

Part XI, Line 5: Consists of unrealized losses on investments.
