Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used		All requests for scholarship or program grant support are documented in writing and are reviewed for mission compatibility and fiscal validity. All students must formally apply for scholarship support through a process collaboratively coordinated through NVC's Office of Financial Aid and the NVC Foundation and reviewed thoroughly by scholarship committees with guidance and oversight from NVC Foundation staff. Materials and equipment for instruction, curriculum, and library use funded by the Foundation are verified through initial and on-going site inspection and regular communication with their end-users. Campus-wide support provided by the Foundation is monitored through regular and consistent institution-wide committees on which Foundation staff serve (College President's Cabinet and Administrative Services Council) and through communication conveyed through representatives of the College's primary constituent bodies: the Associated Students of NVC, the NVC Administrative Senate, the NVC Classified Staff Senate, and the NVC Faculty Senate and Association. Additionally, activities of the Foundation and the programs its funds support are reported directly to the NVC Board of Trustees in open session and entered into the public record.
